

Narrative Essay Rubric

Name _____

- ___ / 5 Written in past tense, in sequential order, told through 3rd person omnipotent narrator
- ___ /10 Teaches one central truth (clear theme effectively persuaded)
- ___ /10 Possesses all myth elements following assignment guidelines (new myth, “chap. 2” of existing myth, adaption using characters of existing myth)
- ___ /10 Follows story arc (exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, resolution)
- ___ /10 Purposeful description (uses 5 senses, strong adjectives, furthers thesis)
- ___ / 5 Grammar and mechanics

- ___ /50 Total

Narrative Essay Rubric

Name _____

- ___ / 5 Written in past tense, in sequential order, told through 3rd person omnipotent narrator
- ___ /10 Teaches one central truth (clear theme effectively persuaded)
- ___ /10 Possesses all myth elements following assignment guidelines (new myth, “chap. 2” of existing myth, adaption using characters of existing myth)
- ___ /10 Follows story arc (exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, resolution)
- ___ /10 Purposeful description (uses 5 senses, strong adjectives, furthers thesis)
- ___ /5 Grammar and mechanics

- ___ /50 Total

Narrative Essay Rubric

Name _____

- ___ / 5 Written in past tense, in sequential order, told through 3rd person omnipotent narrator
- ___ /10 Teaches one central truth (clear theme effectively persuaded)
- ___ /10 Possesses all myth elements following assignment guidelines (new myth, “chap. 2” of existing myth, adaption using characters of existing myth)
- ___ /10 Follows story arc (exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, resolution)
- ___ /10 Purposeful description (uses 5 senses, strong adjectives, furthers thesis)
- ___ / 5 Grammar and mechanics

- ___ /50 Total