

Stu Dent

Mrs. Schmeichel

Comp and Ancient Lit

6 October 2021

Lit Analysis Full Sentence Outline

Thesis:

I. Topic Sentence

A. 1st Assertion

1. Evidence (quote, paraphrase. Always integrated to reflect your argument)
2. Evidence explained
3. Transition sentence to 2nd assertion

B. 2nd Assertion

1. Evidence (quote, paraphrase. Always integrated to reflect your argument)
2. Evidence explained

C. Paragraph concluded and transition next paragraph

II. Topic Sentence

A. 1st Assertion

1. Evidence (quote, paraphrase. Always integrated to reflect your argument)
2. Evidence explained
3. Transition sentence to 2nd assertion

B. 2nd Assertion

1. Evidence (quote, paraphrase. Always integrated to reflect your argument)
2. Evidence explained

C. Paragraph concluded and transition next paragraph

Use this format for all body paragraphs

Works Cited

Homer. The Odyssey. Translated by Robert Fagles, Penguin Classics, 1996.

Knox, Bernard. Introduction to The Odyssey. The Odyssey. Translated by Robert Fagles, 1996
pp. 3-64.

The NIV Study Bible. New International Version, Zondervan, 2011.